

What to expect when it comes to Professionalism

Description

Professionalism is not just a blend of technical and managerial skills, but it also requires a lot of other attributes to be successful at work even if the professional is a competent and skilled individual in any particular activity. Though there are many ways to define a professional but the simplest would be, To set expectations and deliver them with perfect planning by imbining excellent articulation & leadership qualities with strong motivation.

Technical skills are crucial to perform the tasks of your profession and the expertise to use them increases your productivity. Adopting a life long learning approach to increase professional affiliation and updating the skills according to the latest technologies will increase your job prospects.

In addition to technical skills, try to learn soft skills as they help you stand out in today's competitive environment. Learn about the latest technological updates in your domain as pro activeness is an asset in your journey towards a successful career.

Communication

Communication is a basic need to excel in your career, a professional should accurately process information conveyed to him or her and present the information accurately to the team. Excellent articulation skills are required to create a clear and effective communication channel between team members & clients. In addition to that body language is an important aspect of communication and can have as much or more of a bearing on the outcome of a conversation compared to its verbal counterpart.

Critical thinking

Professionals should logically analyze problems and define a clear solution to overcome problems. The important aspect is the ability to plan and envision future business prospects to avoid the roadblocks. This quality will have a great bearing on how successful you are in your career.

Professional ethics

Paramount importance is given to skills to stay ahead in your career. Technical skills coupled with a good value system defines you as a great professional.

Motivation

Motivated people work with extreme commitment and deliver the results in the stipulated timeline. By staying motivated, your efficiency will increase as challenging tasks are handed to you.

Commitment and reliability

Being committed enables you to excel at the task at hand.

Determination

The age old adage of "If at first you don't succeed try, try & try again" has served many successful people well. This is a quality that is very to create a successful career since challenges are never easy to solve.

Responsibility

Firms expect individuals to takes responsibility for their actions and managers to take responsibility for the actions of their team members. Taking responsisbility for both good and bad to be accepted as a responsible employee within the organisation.

Punctuality

Be punctual to avoid last minute worries , This characteristic enables you to complete tasks assigned to you on or before time.

Category

1. HR Strategy & Trends

Tags

1. employees
2. HR
3. leadership
4. Professionalism
5. soft skills
6. technical skills
7. work

Date Created

January 9, 2017

Author

nadeem